PIGGY WIGGLY SALE FIRM IN RECEIVERSHIP

Elliot Business Builders
Had Difficulty Collecting Their Proceeds.

FIVE FIRMS INVOLVED

Bankruptcy Petition Brought Against Three Subsidiaries of Store Concern.

Percival Wilds, as receiver in bankruptcy for the Manhattan Piggy-Wiggly Corporation, which failed for $1,000,000, yesterday filed an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against James W. Elliot's Business Builders, Inc., and three other Piggy-Wiggly firms known as the Western New York Piggy-Wiggly Corporation, the Eastern Piggy-Wiggly Corporation and the Connecticut Piggy-Wiggly Corporation.

These three were subsidiaries of the Manhattan Piggy-Wiggly Corporation. The Elliot organization, of which James W. Elliot was the master spirit, has offices at 152 West Forty-second street. It controlled the franchise and promoted the stock sales of the Manhattan Piggy-Wiggly Corporation, employing young college men and professional men with small practices as fast working salesmen, who induced hundreds to withdraw their bank savings to buy the stock of the Piggy-Wiggly groceries.

Methods Described.
The liabilities of the Elliot firm are listed at $600,000 and assets at $100,000. Besides Mr. Percival, whose claim amounted to $250,000, the petition was signed by Ida Cohen and Helen Johnson, with claims for services rendered of $1,000 and $2,000 respectively.

Judge Augustus N. Hand appointed Mr. Percival receiver for the four firms, with bail fixed at $5,000 in each case. The principal business of James W. Elliot's Business Builders, Inc., according to the petition, "was the financing of the Manhattan Piggy-Wiggly Corporation," which operated forty-two self-service stores in three States. The present financial difficulties of the corporation are due to the inability of the Elliot organization to pay over to the corporation funds collected by Elliot's salesmen through the sale of the corporation's stock, the petition alleges. A receiver is urged lest the assets of the Elliot firm be dissipated in litigation.

The Elliot organization financed business for other corporations and firms, selling their stock and acting as holding corporation of the stock of other corporations. In the assets the office fixtures and furniture are valued at $25,000 and stocks and securities of other organizations at $75,000.

Awaits Accountants' Report.

In his petition against the three subsidiaries of the Manhattan Corporation Mr. Wilds alleged that the Western New York group owed the parent company $50,000, and had $40,000 worth of fixtures and stock to show for it; that the Eastern owed $40,000 and had $30,000, and the Connecticut owed $50,000 and had $40,000. The failure of the Manhattan Piggy-Wiggly Corporation does not directly involve the Piggy-Wiggly chain store system which is working apparently with profit in the southern and western States. The Manhattan company simply bought the license to use the patented Piggy-Wiggly self-service chain grocery store plan, owned by the parent company at Memphis, Tenn., paying one-half of 1 per cent. of its profits as royalties.

Harry Zalkin of Zalkin & Cohen, 49 Chambers street, counsel for the petitioners, said Mr. Wilds would be unable to make any statement until a report has been submitted by the accountants. The filing of bankruptcy proceedings against the Manhattan Piggy-Wiggly Corporation, the parent company, necessitated action against all subsidiary companies, he said.

ST. PETER'S TO HONOR ITS 136TH ANNIVERSARY

Catholic Church Will Observe Incorporation Here.

Mr. James H. McGean, for fifty years rector of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Barclay street, known as "the cradle of the Roman Catholic Church in New York," has arranged a program for the celebration next Sunday of the 136th anniversary of the dedication of the church and the 137th anniversary of its incorporation of the Catholic church in this city will be observed on the same day. The feature will be a solemn high mass at 11 o'clock, at which there will be benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and a sermon by the Rev. John E. Wickham.

The dedication of St. Peter's took place on the feast of St. Charles Borromeo as a compliment to the King of Spain, who had been a benefactor of the church. The Spanish Minister, Don Gardequi, and son were present at the ceremony. The first mass was sung by the Rev. Andrew Nugent, assisted by the chaplains of the French and Spanish legations.

NEW HAVEN Conn., Nov. 18.—Endowment of Yale University was increased by $6,985,001, bringing its total to $32,662,011, in the year ended June 30 last, according to the report of the university treasurer, George Parbury Day, given out to-night. An unusually large number of gifts to meet the conditions of the $3,000,000 subscribed to the general endowment by Mrs. Stephen V. Harkness, also were announced.

Gifts for building and other non-permanent funds aggregated $1,651,250, while gifts to income were $740,642. Included in the latter were $136,000 from the General Education Board and $30,000 from the Yale School of Medicine to reconstruct two wards in the New Haven Hospital and to build laboratories in that institution. $20,000 more from the Commonwealth Fund to the department of surgery, and $25,000 through 3,493 contributors to the Alumni Fund, the principal of which was also increased by $147,000.

A new section of the report summarizes the work of the department of university health, which gave 2,767 medical examinations, 916 orthopedic and 1,229 dental examinations and 9,612 consultations. The bureau of appointments reported the year's total value of scholarships, fellowships and loans to students at about $200,000, while self-supporting students reported they had earned in term time and vacation more than $170,000.

In the sections dealing with the investments of the university the average yield received from all investments by Yale is given as 5.29 per cent.

BOLSHEVISM SPREADS RAPIDLY IN CHINA

Students and Intellectuals
Form Many Red Societies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Bolshevism, encouraged by Moscow, is rampant in China and seeks control of the East as a weapon against the West, according to reports received to-day by the Government. The formation of numerous associations of Chinese students and intellectuals under such names as "The Anti-Christian Society," "The New Tide Society," "The Principles of Karl Marx Society" was reported.

Under the Eastern program of the Bolshevik China and Korea would provide a school for communistic thought and institutions.
